ANTENUPTIAL AGREEMENTS

NOTE

MARITAL CONTRACTS WHICH MAY BE PUT ASUNDER . . . . . Vol. 13 (1973-74) Page 23

CASE NOTES

An antenuptial agreement obtained through design, cognitive planning, and concealment, which constitutes fraud and overreaching, is void. A divorce settlement is abrogated when the parties remarry and the clear preponderance of the evidence regarding the parties' conduct demonstrates that their intention was that the settlement should not survive the remarriage. Arnold v. Arnold, —— Ark. ——, 553 S.W.2d 251 (1977) . . . . . Vol. 16 (1977-78) Page 823

ESTATES

CASE NOTES

An antenuptial agreement obtained through design, cognitive planning, and concealment, which constitutes fraud and overreaching, is void. A divorce settlement is abrogated when the parties remarry and the clear preponderance of the evidence regarding the parties' conduct demonstrates that their intention was that the settlement should not survive the remarriage. *Arnold v.
